

RENCONTRES INTERNATIONALES PARIS/BERLIN

new cinema and contemporary art

Press release 24/01/2020

FROM 25 FEB. TO 1 MARCH 2020

Louvre auditorium, Grand Palais auditorium, Cité internationale des arts

Rencontres Internationales Paris/Berlin creates flows between new cinema and contemporary art

Rencontres Internationales invites you to discover its new programme in Paris, from 25 February to 1 March 2020. Crossing new cinema and contemporary art, this unique platform in Europe provides a rare opening on contemporary audiovisual practices. Documentary approaches, experimental fictions, videos, hybrid and multimedia forms: the programme of Rencontres Internationales is the result of in-depth research and invitations to outstanding artists from the fields of cinema and contemporary art.

The event will take the form of an original itinerary between different venues: Louvre auditorium, Grand Palais auditorium and Cité internationale des arts, among others.

In the presence of artists and filmmakers from all over the world, this edition introduces a brand new international programme, comprising 120 works from 40 countries; bringing together internationally renowned artists and filmmakers with young and emerging ones presented for the first time.

The event is free admission.

Rencontres Internationales Paris/Berlin displays a true lab of discovery and reflection dedicated to contemporary practices of the moving image

Among the highlights

The programme, unveiled at the end of January, is offering many new events. These include an exceptional carte blanche to Mark Lewis (Canada), the presentation of a VR work by David Lynch (United States), and a special session with Antoni Muntadas (Spain).
